

House Republican Press Release

January 3, 2005
Press Office: 860-240-8700

Sen. Freedman & Area Representatives Announce Upcoming Constituent Meetings

Senator Judith G. Freedman (R-26) and area representatives will hold constituent meetings in Westport and Wilton next week.

The constituent meetings will be held:

- January 12th from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. in Room 201 at the Westport Town Hall. Senator Freedman, Representative Cathy Tymniak and Representative Joe Mioli will be there to hear what constituents have to say.
- January 13th from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the community room at the Wilton Library for residents of Wilton and New Canaan. Senator Freedman, Representative Toni Boucher and Representative John Hetherington will be available to hear from constituents.

“We are looking forward to these meetings because they are such a good opportunity for constituents to tell us personally about their concerns and ideas regarding state government, and the issues that affect our part of the state. Even more importantly, it is an opportunity for us to help them better deal with state agencies and, hopefully, help them resolve any problems they may have,” said Senator Freedman, adding that this is a good time for constituents to share their ideas regarding state issues as legislators are busy putting together their legislative proposals for the 2005 session.

“Of course, I understand that not everyone who would like to attend one of these meetings will be able to, so I would like to remind constituents that we can be reached at our legislative offices in Hartford, or by e-mail,” said Senator Freedman.